

Jane Jones

---

Objective To use focused communication strategies to raise awareness of a health-related corporation as a communications specialist.

Education 2005 Graduate, Brigham Young University (B.S.) Provo, Utah

- 3.97 overall GPA; 4.00 GPA in School Health Education
- Double-major in School Health Education and Broadcast Journalism

Work Experience July 2012-present American Health Care Rocklin, California

Strategic Account Executive

- Managed communication with clients including school districts, hospitals, and health clinics; wrote and presented plan financial performance analyses to clients' executive team members

August 2009-August 2011 Department of Health Science, BYU Provo, Utah

Assistant Professor

- Taught 300 and 400 level undergraduate courses in public and school health

May-August 2007 Dr. Phil Television Show Hollywood, California

Production Assistant

- Collaborated with producers and CBS executives to develop plans for health-related episodes

Spring 2004 ABC News 20/20 New York, New York

20/20 Medical Unit

- Completed research, wrote interview questions, conducted off-camera interviews on location

January - April 2004 BYU NewsNet Provo, Utah

Television News Anchor/Health Reporter

- Anchored noon news broadcast; produced and reported health-related stories

January-April 2002 BYU NewsNet Provo, Utah

Reporter, *The Daily Universe

- Produced 45 print and 20 radio stories for the campus desk covering health issues

Awards received

BYU Health Education Major of the Year; Magna Cum Laude graduate of Brigham Young University; Full-tuition scholarship, BYU; Girls State Representative from Roseville High School, Roseville, California

References Available upon request

